ALL AMENDMENTS TO MANITOBA'S REFUSAL REJECTED.

Debating the School Question More Com bativeness is Manifested and the News that the Ottawa Cotholics are Trying to Secure Separate Schools Does not Soothe Anybody-Spokesman for the Protestant Faction Quotes Supreme Court Decisions and the Privy Council for His View--Answer is Readopted.

Winnipeg, Man., June 19 .- As the de bate on the separate schools question progressed today there was more evidence of fight on both sides. Reports from Ottawa that the French members there were trying to force the dominon government to re-establish separate schools did not tend to relieve strained relations between the two factions. Mr. Prendegast's amendment to reject Mr. Greenway's entire reply of refusal was debated this afternoon. It was in effect a proposal that all the privileges held by Catholics under the old laws should be re-establish-

Mr. Meyers was the first speaker. He declared that the house had always been conciliatory and open to reason; still they offered no compromise; they said that what they had done was just and right and they did not intend to recede from it. He illustrated his posi-tion by saying that the minority had been given seed grain, and after twen-ty years use it was found to be mixed with French weed and thisties, and the province had resolved to take it from them and give them good seed in-stead. He was convinced that in all the negotiations in Manitoba separate schools were not discussed and were not provided for, and he held that Manitoba was within its constitutional rights in passing the schools act of

NOT MEANT FOR MANITOBA.

The supreme court and the judicial committee of the privy council held that the clause of the British North American act respecting separate schools in any province did not apply to Manitoba. The same authority was conclusive as against the claim that Roman Catholic schools property had been confiscated under the act of 1890. He held that Joseph Martin was responsible for promises made during the bye-elections in 1899 and not the province. The political power of the Roman Catholic church was a standing menace to the freedom of Canada and the stability of egovernment, the claimed that the executive committee at Ottawa, while bound to hear the appeal of Catholics, were not bound to make any remedial order. They had power to dismiss the appeal, but had not heard and decided the question on its merits. The decision had been on account of influence execised by Quebe members and the power behind NOT MEANT FOR MANITOBA. account of influence execised by Quebec members and the power behind them. The Manitoba government had wisely held that if the dominion authorities for their own information. wisely held that if the dominion authorities for their own information and at their awn expense, wanted information, the local government would he ready to give it. He hoped that the dominion parliament would not deal with the question this session, but secure all the information possible.

A vote on the school debate was reached at 1:30 this evening. All the amendments were voted down and amendment would not deal well contested. Summaries:

The complaint alleges that Thomas J. Kelley, a son of Thomas D. Kelley, was one of the original locaters and patentees of the Little Johnny mine.
He died Nov. 6, 1888, and by Colorado laws the plaintiffs are his heirs. In 1863 they conveyed their interests in the mine to the defendants, being, it is alleged, by frank and collusions kent alleged, by fraud and collusions kept in ignorance of the value of the mine. alleged, by fraud and collusions kept in ignorance of the value of the mine. It is further set forth that before or soon after the death of Thomas J. Kelley in 1886, the Little Johnny mine had become worth from $5,000,000 to $19,000,000 and had become one of the most wonderful bonanzas in Colorado and was producing many million. and was producing many millions of dollars worth of gold and silver at the Time 1:24.

DAVIS' PRELIMINARY.

The preliminary examination of J. C. Davis, of Rochester, N. Y., on the charge of felony in passing a fictitious check, was commenced before Judge Joachimsen today. The case was that Jacob Macowsky, jeweler, who sold Davis a gold watch and other articles and received in payment a draft on the "American Exchange bank of New-York" for $200. The defendant was rep-York" for $200. The defendant was represented by Attorney Frank M. Stone and argument took place and Prospecuting Attorney Dare as to proving that the "American Exchange bank of New York" only existed in Davis' imagination. The prosecuting attorney promised to have proof that there is no such bank in New York. The case went over until tomorrow.

San Francisco, June 19.—A special newspaper train going towards San Jose at the rate of 59 miles per hour ran over and instantly killed Robert Marshall and wife at a crossing just outside the city limits. The Marshall's were torn to pieces. The train ran for a mile before it could be stopped, carrying on the cowcatcher fragments of the man, woman, horse and vehicle.
